

Trans-AID Eligibility Application For Person's with Physical Disabilities

Trans-AID, a paratransit system operating in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990, is designed to serve individuals whose disabling condition or functional limitation prevents them from using regular fixed route WSTA bus services.

Who Is Eligible?

Under the ADA regulations, individuals who qualify for paratransit services (known as Trans-AID) qualify for at least one of the following three categories:

1. The individual is unable, as a result of mental, visual or physical impairment as defined in the ADA to get on, ride, or get off an accessible vehicle of the WSTA fixed route bus system, even with training;
2. The individual can use or learn to use an accessible public transportation, BUT such a vehicle is not available on the route when the person wants to travel;
3. The individual has a specific impairment-related condition (including limitations of vision, hearing or disorientation), which prevents travel to or from the Downtown Transportation Center or stop of the WSTA fixed route bus system.

If at least one of the above items that applies to you, identify that item by filling in the corresponding number(s) _____. (ex. If you have a mental or physical impairment and cannot access WSTA fixed route system, then you would fill in the #1).)

Eligibility: What You Should Know About This Program:

- Individuals who can access regular fixed route bus services are not eligible for Trans-AID service.
- Trans-ID service operates where the WSTA fixed route service operates, and during the same days and hours.
- If the applicant is determined to be eligible for this program, one of two designations may be made: Unconditional, Conditional, or Temporary. Unconditional eligibility indicates that the applicant can use Trans-AID services for all trips with the service area. Conditional eligibility indicates that some trips are eligible and some not, based on functional ability to use the WSTA bus system, given the specific environment and demands of each trip. Temporary eligibility indicates that your condition is not permanent and you have an expected duration of your disability.
