

WSTA and Trans-AID Make a Triumphant Return to Roadeo Competition After More Than a Decade

Winston-Salem, NC — After more than 10 years away from the competition, the Winston-Salem Transit Authority (WSTA) and its paratransit service, Trans-AID, proudly returned to the regional and state Roadeo circuits—and they didn't come back quietly. With standout performances from all four participants, the team earned top honors and made their mark in the largest North Carolina State Roadeo in history, which featured 94 skilled competitors from across the state.

Representing WSTA and Trans-AID were operators Anthony Mosely, Justin Hayes, Jose Najera, and Qorticha Glenn. Their hard work, professionalism, and dedication to the craft of safe, efficient transit service were on full display across both regional and state competitions.

Regional Competition Highlights:

- Justin Hayes – 2nd Place Individual in the LTV Division
- Qorticha Glenn – 3rd Place Individual in the LTV Division
- Fixed Route Bus Team – 3rd Place Overall
- LTV Team – 2nd Place Overall

State Competition Achievement:

- Anthony Mosely – 5th Place Individual in Fixed Route Bus at the largest Roadeo in North Carolina history

“This was more than a return—it was a statement,” said Levine Hedgepeth, AGM Safety. “We are incredibly proud of all four operators. Their achievements reflect the quality, training, and pride that WSTA and Trans-AID bring to public transportation in our community every day.”

The Roadeo competitions test drivers through obstacle courses, safety inspections, and timed challenges that simulate real-world transit scenarios. It's a premier showcase of operational skill and professionalism within the transit industry.

“We can't wait to see what next year brings. This is just the beginning,” added Levine Hedgepeth, AGM Safety

For more information about WSTA and Trans-AID services, visit www.ridewsta.com.

Media Contact:

Brandie Peterson
Director of Marketing & Community Engagement
Winston-Salem Transit Authority
336-727-2000
brandie.peterson@ratpdev.com